

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Key Club International, a high school service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International, is observing the week of November 7-13, 1982, as Key Club Week; and,

WHEREAS, Key Club International in the State of South Dakota is comprised of over 350 high school students in 11 schools across the state; and,

WHEREAS, The members of Key Clubs are part of an International organization of over 104,000 students dedicated to serve with purpose their God, country, and fellow man, seeking to give primarily to human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life; and,

WHEREAS, They promote the adoption of higher standards in scholastics, sportsmanship, social contacts and a more concerned citizenship; and,

WHEREAS, Through their purposeful service they have helped to build better communities where righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill are more than just words--where they become goals for living; and,

WHEREAS, The current adopted theme of "Strengthen From Within" and its related projects focus on the individual commitment to the fundamentals of Key Club International: Pride, Concern, Love, Caring:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 7-13, 1982, as in South Dakota and hereby do call upon the officials of this State and all citizens thereof to render all support to the students of this organization and make themselves aware of Key Club, whose members this day are fitting themselves to be better, more responsible citizens when they take their place in the adult world.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

William J. Janklow
